Section 1. Short Title

This resolution may be titled as, "Dress Code Policy Updates"

Section 2. Discussion

Whereas, the previous relevant sections in the Dress Code Policy read:

Dress Code Policy

Standard

Senators are expected to dress in accordance with standards of good taste, including being neat, clean, and well-groomed. If attire meets the criteria and is not included in the following list of unacceptable attire, it is considered acceptable.

Dress Code Policy Criteria

- Business casual dress will be required for all General Senate and committee meetings unless otherwise notified.
- Two dress policy violations results in one unexcused absence.
- Each Senator will be notified by the Speaker of Senate, Speaker Pro-Tempore or the Internal Affairs Committee Chair when a dress policy violation occurs.

Unacceptable Attire

- Athletic and tennis shoes

- Hiking boots
- Baseball caps
- Any clothing that is worn, torn, frayed, or has patches or holes
- Sweat clothing or workout attire such as sweatshirts, sweatpants, and jogging suits
- Clothing made of athletic material including yoga pants or jogging shorts
- T-shirts
- Bare feet
- Bathing suit
- Beach sandals or flip flops
- Sheer or see-through clothing
- Tank tops or muscle shirts
- Undergarments worn as outer garments

Acceptable Attire

- Slacks: Black, khaki, dark dress pants, or other classic colors are typical.
- Shirt: Typically includes a button-front dress shirt or polo shirt.
- Blouse: Wear a well-pressed dress shirt or blouse. You can choose a button-front or something less formal, but avoid anything revealing. A sweater-set is also appropriate.
- Business appropriate looking shoes are required.

*If any questions or inquiries arise, please contact the Speaker or the Senate or the Internal Affairs Committee Chair and no punitive actions will be taken.

Whereas, the new sections of the Senator Code of Conduct will read (additions are highlighted in yellow, removals are ~~struck through~~):

Dress Code Policy Criteria

- Business casual dress will be required for all Student Senate Sessions and committee meetings unless otherwise notified.
- Two dress policy violations results in one unexcused absence.
- Each Senator will be notified by the Speaker of Senate, Speaker Pro-Tempore or the Internal Affairs Committee Chair when a dress code policy violation occurs.

Acceptable Attire

- Changes to the dress code may be granted for medical conditions or disabilities. Changes to the dress code also may be granted in response to financial concerns. Please contact the Speaker of the Senate to discuss accommodations.
