Section 2. Discussion

The UI Lecture Committee exists to stimulate thought, discussion, and engagement by presenting an intellectually diverse program that brings the broader University of Iowa communities face-to-face with the world's notable thinkers throughout each academic year.

The UI Lecture Committee nominated John Dickens to join their committee. Since the UI Lecture Committee is a Presidential Charter Committee, the UISG Senate must vote to approve any appointments of undergraduate students.

In the fall semester of 2019, a student representative spot on the Presidential Charter Committee overseeing Hancher was vacated. Through an internal search, President Noel Mills appointed Jack Lauer to the position.

The following undergraduate is confirmed as a representative on the Presidential Charter Committee for Hancher:

The Student Senate confirms the aforementioned nominee for the UI Lecture Committee and Presidential Charter Committee on Hancher.
